Summer 2017 FAQ

Let us help your interns see CLE!

What is (i)Cleveland Summer?

(i)Cleveland Summer is an offering of Cleveland Leadership Center. The program builds Cleveland's future by connecting your college interns to Greater Cleveland's vibrant cultural and community resources. The summer program includes:

- Two full-day sessions (June and July): Interns explore new neighborhoods, meet community leaders who are advancing the region, and become connected to Cleveland's vital social and civic scenes. The June session includes neighborhood immersions and a downtown scavenger hunt. The July session includes service at Cleveland nonprofits and exploration of Cleveland's arts and culture scene. Session dates are determined by interns' cohort (A, B, or C).
- Power lunches: Interns attend at least two small-group Power Lunches where they have the opportunity to gain an insider's perspective on careers and leadership lessons from leaders at corporate, nonprofit and civic organizations in and around Cleveland.
- Young professional mentors: Interns have the option to be assigned a summer mentor for an authentic look at life as a young professional in Cleveland. (i)Cleveland mentors provide career and personal guidance and welcome interns to join them in their activities and community involvements.

How much does (i)Cleveland Summer cost?

Tuition is $250 per intern, payable at the time of registration or by June 1. This includes all activities, meals and arranged transportation.

What is the return on our investment?

- Interns who are excited to build relationships in the civic and business community, and can envision their future in Cleveland.
- Outstanding visibility for your organization among our (i)Cleveland students and other participating businesses.
- A priceless experience for your interns beyond their professional role.

What will our interns gain from the program?

- Unparalleled networking with business and community leaders, fellow CLE interns and young professionals in the region.
- Behind-the-scenes immersion into Cleveland's civic, social and business sectors.
- A working knowledge of Cleveland's economic, cultural and leadership resources.
- An unforgettable internship experience to share with their networks at home and school.
- Commencement into the 6,000-plus CLC Alumni network, which includes the most innovative, creative and accomplished leaders in civic Cleveland.
