

Favorite Cleveland Meeting Places

The Root Café has ample seating space and it's open for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. They serve locally-sourced food and coffee, and their food options are great for people with dietary restrictions. Plus, it feels like you're in a tree!

The Phoenix Coffee on East Ninth Street is just across the street from our office and their coffee (and homemade almond milk) is a great start to any meeting.

- Nicole -

The Cleveland Museum of Art atrium is a great meeting spot. Chat over coffee or lunch in the light-filled space. Then take your meeting on the go while enjoying Picasso, Calder and Monet!

Our Leadership Center offices, with their great views, inspired people, and high-energy feel is the best meeting space in town. Everyone should meet here!

Six Shooter Coffee - they not only have great coffee but also have baked goods from Totally Sweet and sandwiches from The Other Half that are amazing! The staff is also super-friendly!

- Evie -

Luna Bakery & Cafe has excellent breakfast and lunch options, multiple areas to sit, and there's convenient parking in back. It's also centrally located between downtown and the east side. I always run into someone I know.

- Andrew -

Hot Spot has great food, they serve breakfast all day, it's conveniently located downtown, plus they have free parking.

- Michelle -

Civilization in Tremont is a cozy neighborhood coffee shop with great coffee, food, and atmosphere!

- Rachel -

One of my favorite meeting places is Erie Island Coffee - it's a good place to meet and enjoy a good cup of coffee or iced chai tea. The atmosphere is warm and comfortable, and the service is always friendly.

- Kim -

Koffie Café is a great combo of delicious coffee and an inviting atmosphere. Enjoy the great patio and take in the Cleveland sun!

- Nick -

Map of Thailand - the food is great and who doesn't love Thai food?!

- Lenora -

Heartwood Roasting in Chagrin Falls is a great place to meet and get work done, or just relax with a great cup of coffee and avocado toast!

- Becky -

Breakfast food is the best food. Any place that serves breakfast all day is on my list. Yours Truly is a regular meeting spot.

Phoenix Coffee on Coventry in Cleveland Heights is convenient to where I live and has a friendly, welcoming staff. Great atmosphere too!
