

“A Christmas Story” play at Playhouse Square is a fun and uniquely Cleveland experience. It’s a family favorite during the holidays.

Kim

The West Side Market is fun, unique, and perfect for visitors to Clevelanders of all ages. Plus there’s great food and snacks everywhere!

Jody

I am looking forward to spending time with loved ones marveling at the Wild Winter Lights displays at the Cleveland Metroparks Zoo.

Michelle

The “Third Friday” events are always a great way to explore the galleries at 78th Street Studios. There’s also a special Black Friday event for those looking for holiday gifts.

Andrew

Out-of-towners will really appreciate CLE after a visit to the Cleveland History Center. Explore lots of cool stuff and ride the carousel.

Michael

It’s always fun to head to University Circle, explore the museums, and take the kids ice skating at The Rink at Wade Oval.

Bob

During the holiday season we always plan to ice skate at Public Square and then warm up with a drink at the Lake Effects holiday pop-up bar downtown.

Nicole

HOLIDAY SEASON ACTIVITIES

Every holiday season I find myself at Loganberry Books to browse their great selection of local gifts and there’s something for everyone on your list!

Nick

We love Cleveland Orchestra’s holiday concerts at Severance Hall. The venue is spectacular and the concerts appeal to all generations.

Marianne

The Cleveland Play House Festival of Trees is beautiful (and free!). The trees, decorated by local community organizations, are stunning.

Rachel

Whenever family comes in from out of town, we visit the Cleveland Museum of Art and their current main exhibit. Hours are spent in the ARTLENS Gallery!

Lenora

Glow at Cleveland Botanical Garden (Nov 23-Jan 4) features beautifully decorated trees and gingerbread houses.

Maeve

Our family spends the Friday after Thanksgiving shopping at local merchants, enjoying a casual dinner and ending with the tree lighting ceremony in Chagrin Falls.

Becky

Winterloo (Dec 6) in the Waterloo Arts District is a great way to support makers, artists, and businesses, and get unique gifts too!

Fvie