TEAM-BUILDING & FACILITATION SKILLS

SELF-AWARENESS & CONFIDENCE

S.M.A.R.T. GOAL SETTING

Dare2Lead is an evidence-based anti-bullying program that empowers students and educators to interrupt bullying behaviors effectively through strategic action.

Young leaders are equipped with the knowledge and skills to step up as leaders and create positive change in their schools.

Educators learn how to engage their peers and administrators through actions, policies, and procedures that support the students' efforts.

TEAM-BUILDING & FACILITATION

Students learn how to start and facilitate challenging discussions to build positive team dynamics, and practice these skills in real-life scenarios to interrupt bullying.

SELF-AWARENESS & CONFIDENCE

Participants discover a greater awareness of their own identity and how they can leverage that to create positive change. They gain confidence around intervening as a leader, especially when it is not popular to do so, and learn to empower others to do the same.

S.M.A.R.T. GOALS SETTING

Students work in small groups to create S.M.A.R.T. (Specific Measurable Achievable Relevant and Time-bound) goals across four levels (individual, interpersonal, classroom and school). These plans, along with the one created by educators are then shared with the entire group, allowing all to leave with a host of actionable items.

Here's what students had to say about the fall Dare2Lead program:

- “Bullying is more of a problem than I realized. This program made me realize that I don't take problems as serious as I should. I will pay attention more and help prevent it from happening.”
- “It made me realize that a lot of issues still need to be addressed and it helped me see things through others' perspectives ... I will think more about how my actions affect others.”

Here's what educators had to say about the fall Dare2Lead program:

- “I will use all this information and apply it to my curriculum to better the program for a much better outcome”
- “I wish this was taught in all the schools”

Dare2Lead is a program of the Cleveland Leadership Center. CLC's mission is to build a continuum of civic leaders committed to our community's excellence by serving as a catalyst for civic engagement.
